

Theo Peters

Theo Peters is a London-based tenor who currently sings as an Academical Clerk in the New College Choir, Oxford, studying under Bronwen Mills and taking part in a number of international tours as well as recordings. For 5 years Theo sang in the chapel choir at Eton College, learning with Brian Gordon, and in his last year he was Keeper of the Choir. Also at Eton, Theo sang in and lead several close harmony groups, including Eton's foremost group 'The Incognitos'; close harmony is a passion he continues to pursue, singing in the New Men. Theo was also a member of the Rodolfus Choir and the National Youth Choir. He particularly enjoys singing 18th and 19th century Lieder, including that of Schumann and Brahms, as well as the music of Fauré.