

Edward Beswick

Edward Beswick is a third-year undergraduate reading music at New College. Much of his musical life has been framed within this chapel, where he was a chorister for 5 years under the direction of Edward Higginbottom, and Robert Quinney. In this time, he took part in several tours of Europe and the United States, as well as appearing on a number of recordings.

During secondary school, his interest in close harmony developed, and for which the New Men continues to function as a busy and fruitful outlet. Edward sings as a clerk in New College Choir, alongside his academic studies. This afternoon marks his third NCO recital, which have spanned a wide variety of baroque, classical, romantic, and twentieth-century repertory.
